

Why is it important to remember the Kindertransport?

Outcomes:

Identify how we remember important past events

Describe how we remember the Kindertransport

Explain why it is important to remember

Activities:

1. List all the different ways we remember important events and actions.
2. Learn about Sir Nicholas Winton and the Kindertransport sculpture 'For the Child'.
3. Task: Create a memorial to remember the Kindertransport. Focus on the different survivor stories and objects that have been included throughout The Journey. This could be a sculpture, a painting, a symbol, a poem or song. This work should include an important message that was learnt from the Leo's Journey.

Reflections:

Why is it important to remember the kindertransport?

What does learning about Leo and this topic mean to you? What have you learnt?
